

FVM HOLDS 9TH BIENIAL SCIENTIFIC CONFRENCE AND EXHIBITION

The 9th biennial scientific conference and exhibition of the faculty of veterinary medicine was held at the University Of Nairobi's upper kabete Campus between 3rd and 5th Sep 2014. The theme was Enhancing livelihood through improvement in animal health and production in a changing environment.

The conference attracted about 160 participants drawn from academic institutions and other stakeholders within the veterinary field.

The event was sponsored by Brooke hospital for animals –East Africa, The German academic exchange programme (DAAD), Kenya Veterinary Board , Lesukut Limited , Bayer East Africa Azipharm Limited , UAP Insurance KEVEVAPI .

A total of 64 papers were presented, 33 of those papers being oral and 21 being poster. Awards were presented to the three top presenters in the above categories .The confrence was closed by Prof P.M.F Mbithi DVC, (A&F)University of Nairobi .

The full conference report shall be published in the faculty website .